No more the battle or the chase The phantom tribes pursue,
But each in its accustomed place
The autumn halls anew;
And still from solemn councils set
On every hill and plain,
The smoke of many a calumet
Ascends to heaven again.

FOLKES WITNESS IN POLICE COURT CASE

Commonwealth's Attorney Came Up in Time to See Part of Disturbance.

Court Fixes Bail Bond at $4,000 and Refuses to Accept Surety Offered.

In the United States District Court, Judge Edmund Waddill sitting, an application for ball was made penterday by Max Felstein, through his atterney, Captain Charles C. Berkeley, of Newport News, Judge Waddill, after hearing what steps have been taken in the case, in which Pelstein, formerly a merchant of Newport News, is charged with removing and secreting a portion of his an-sets and making false outh in his schedples, stated that he would not, with his present knowledge of the case, consider a ball bond of less than $4.00 in amount, and that he would be unwilling to accept only the mother-in-law of the bankrupt as surety. He agreed to consider the ap-pikeation if some additional bondsman was produced and the $4.00 ball fur-nished.

was produced and the $8,000 ball furnished.

Felstein, his wife and his mother-inlasv all appeared in court.
Judge Waddin stated that the offenses alleged were both serious, the statute prescribing in each case a maximum penalty of two years' imprisonment. He admitted that he knew little of the marits of the case, and preferred to await until the district attorney could communicate with the attorney of the Southern District of New York.

Attorney Berkeley sgreed to appear here again with an additional bondema, probably next Monday, and give the required surety, and there the case on is for the present.

with many Pictures & Portraits

Our first, the October number, sold out in hundreds of places. Complaints from those who couldn't get it; congratulations from those who did: orders and reorders from newsdealers, newspaper comments; letters and telegrams poured in upon us.

Our second, the November number, is now ready. We have printed a larger edition. It is better than last month's. More people know about it. Those who read the first number advertised it better than we could. Many more readers know that it is the New American Magazine. Twice the number that swept the news-stands in October are waiting expectantly to see what the new adventure in magazine making will bring forth. Our friends who come late may come too late.
